MARK HICKS JR.,

Defendant.

No. CR 13-0079 PJH

STIPULATION AND ORDER TO MODIFY CONDITIONS OF
PRETRIAL RELEASE PERMIT
DEFENDANT TO TRAVEL TO EASTERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

Defendant MARK HICKS JR. was released from custody on various terms and conditions, including electronic monitoring and under the supervision of Pretrial Services. The Court permitted Mr. Hicks to continue his work as a performer, including allowing him to perform at shows with notice to his Pretrial Services Officer.

Mr. Hicks has been performing in the three and one-half months since his release in accordance with this Court's order. Mr. Hicks has now been invited to perform at a show in Fresno, California on June 14, 2013, and would like to appear and perform at that show. Mr. Hicks notified Victoria Gibson, his Pretrial Services Officer, that if she permits him to travel to Fresno, California in the Eastern District of California for this performance, he would leave on

1 the afternoon of June 14, 2013 to drive to the performance, and drive back to his home in the
2 early morning hours of June 15, 2013 after his performance. Ms. Gibson has informed counsel
3 for the defendant that she does not object to Mr. Hicks being allowed to travel for this reason.
4 The government has informed defendant's counsel that she does not object to this modification
5 of Mr. Hicks' conditions of pretrial release.

7 The parties STIPULATE that this Court may modify the conditions of Mr. Hicks' pretrial
8 release to permit him to travel to Fresno, California in the Eastern District of California on June
